

Nursing Program Learning Outcome

Knowledge:

At the end of the program the student will be able to

- 1-Explain cultural and ethical issues related to nursing practice and medical field.
- 2-Explain the scientific background of different nursing interventions and procedures.
- 3-Clarify aetiology, clinical picture, diagnosis, complications and nursing management of health problems affecting patients with different age groups.
- 4-Identify health determinants and principles of public health and community nursing.
- 5-Determine principles and concepts of leadership/management, health education and research in nursing field.

Cognitive Skills:

At the end of the program the student will be able to

- 1-Compare among different interventions and nursing procedures to conclude the suitable one.
- 2-Formulate a plan for increasing health awareness.
- 3-Interpret health information and data related to patients' health problems.
- 4-Plan for competent, efficient and holistic care of patients with different health problems.

Interpersonal Skills and Responsibility:

At the end of the program the student will be able to

- 1-Collaborate ethically, at all stages of patients' care, with health care team and family members.
- 2-Participate in ongoing self- learning activities related to Profession.

Communication IT and Numerical Skills:

At the end of the program the student will be able to

- 1-Communicate professionally with the health team members, patients, clients and family members.
- 2-Manage reliable health data using modern technology.

Psychomotor

At the end of the program the student will be able to

- 1-Implement nursing procedures and interventions with respect to patients' right.